Fund Review

It was a volatile month for global equities, with many markets closing March slightly higher. Shares plunged mid-month as sentiment was knocked by worries over the health of the global banking system following the collapse of two regional US lenders. Nevertheless, global stocks staged a late-month recovery, as further falls in headline inflation rates boosted hopes that central banks may adopt a more moderate stance to raising rates. Robust Chinese economic data also contributed to the positive tone at month-end. Global bonds also delivered positive returns. Initially, bond yields moved higher following a series of hawkish central bank statements but yields subsequently fell sharply amid growing hopes of a more accommodative stance as the banking crisis led to tighter lending conditions. Higher-quality bonds outperformed lower-quality debt as investors favoured low-risk assets given the heightened uncertainty.

Fund Performance

The fund's net asset value increased 2.85% from last month.
